MEN-OF-WAR.

An Interesting Event on North River and New York Harbor.

NEW YORK, November 18.—Amid booming of cannon, dipping of flags, the waving of hundreds of hats and handkerchiefs and cheers from as many throats, Admiral Walker and his squadron, comprising the ships Chicago, Boston, Atlanta and Yorktown, with bunting flying and in all the gay panoply of war, sailed majestically down North river shortly before noon today.

Accompanying the men-of-war was the Dolphin, which went as far as Sandy Hook, having on board as passengers Secretary Tracy, Secretary of War Proctor, ex-Congressman Kasson, Congressmen Herbert, Rusk, Elliott, Thomas, and others, and ex-Secretary Robeson, and Admiral Lerbardi.

The guests were taken on board the Dolphin in a barge. Just as the barge left the wharf ex-Secretary Whitney arrived, and the barge returned to the dock for him.

In honor of his arrival Admiral Walker ordered a salute of thirteen guns to be fired.

At 11:20 o'clock the Chicago moved, after a salute of nineteen guns, and, passing between the Dolphin and the Atlantic, led the way to the bay.

HIGHBINDERS AT WORK

A Chinese Merchant Murdered and His Cash Stolen.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 18.—Sun Garp, who owns an interest in a general merchandise store in the Chinese quarter, was murdered early this morning by an unknown assassin, who escaped after stealing a sack containing about $650.

The murdered Chinaman occupied a room in the rear of his store and his dead body was found there by one of his partners this morning.

There was a frightful gash across his abdomen and the body presented a horrible appearance.

It is supposed that robbery was the only cause of the crime. The police have no clue to the murderer.

BLANCHE DOUGLAS.

She Died in One of the Lowest Dens in Chicago.

CHICAGO, November 18.—It has been discovered that Blanche Douglas, the notorious woman who testified on the trial of the Malley brothers at New Haven for the murder of Jennie Cramer some years ago, which created almost a national sensation, died in one of the lowest dives in this city last Thursday.

With her death goes all hope of the exact facts of Jennie Cramer's death ever being brought to light, as aside from her nobody knew them, unless the two Malleys did, and they are not likely to say anything about it.

KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

They Tackle the Land Question and Taxation.

ATLANTA, Ga., November 18.—The Convention of the Knights of Labor today went into a Committee of the Whole on the land question. The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That land, including all natural sources of wealth, is the heritage of all the people, and should not be subject to speculative traffic. Occupancy and use shall be the only title to the possession of land. Taxes upon land should be levied upon its lawful value for use exclusive of improvements, and should be sufficient to make for the community its unearned increment.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Great Britain Looking Toward Better Defense for Her.

OTTAWA, November 18.—General Sir Frederick Middleton left here today to look into the coast defenses of British Columbia.

There is only a force of about 300 there now. Great Britain desires to put an increased force there and charge the expense to Canada.

This Canada objects to, and Middleton goes out to look over the ground with a view to making recommendations in regard to the matter.

DECLINING SECURITIES.

The Bakers' Strike Did Not Pan Out Very Large.

LONDON, November 18.—Brazilian securities fell 5 per cent today, and it is difficult to effect transactions.

The strike of the bakers fixed for today was small. Only 450 went out, the demands of the others having been granted.

The Judge Sent Them Back.

MINNEAPOLIS, November 18.—The jury in the Cotton forgery case came in today, having been out since Saturday night, and announced that they were unable to agree. The Judge sent them back.

A PROVIDENTIAL WRECK.

Had It Fallen the Other Way 200 Lives Might Have Been Lost.

PITTSBURG, November 18.—The limited mail West on the Pennsylvania ran into a landslide near Bessemer last night, and the engine and baggage car were wrecked. Fireman John Good was fatally injured, and the engineer badly hurt.

Had the engine fallen to the right instead of to the left, the entire train with its 200 souls would have gone down a bank 100 feet high.

Suicide by Chinaman.

SAN JOSE, November 18.—Chung Sing, who was to have been sentenced today for murder in the first degree, was found in his cell this morning insensible from the effects of opium. He will probably die.

Weather Forecast.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 18.—The forecast 21 S. A. M. Tuesday indicates rain in Northern California, and local rains in Southern California.

Market Reports.

CHICAGO, November 18.—Wheat: November, 80½; December, 91¼; May, 87½. Corn: November, 32½; December, 31½; May, 35¼.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 18.—Wheat is steady. Buyer, season, $1 39½. Barley is firmer. Buyer, season, 92½; buyer, '89 83.

A BLANK IN HIS LIFE.

The Strange Story of E. M. Andrews of Alameda.

Losing Himself in Florida He Turns Up in Los Angeles—Restored to His Family.

Some months ago there was telegraphed from the East to this coast the story of the sudden return of E. M. Andrews to his home in Naugatuck, Conn., from California, after an absence of four years, during which time he had been mourned as dead, and insurance had even been collected on his life.

The story is true and for a year or more past Andrews has been residing quietly in Alameda, while his family have been mourning his death.

Edward M. Andrews married Miss Josephine Hill in Moosup, Conn., and shortly afterwards he removed to the town of Naugatuck. It was there that he first went into the contracting business, and he made considerable money at it, until he had amassed a considerable fortune.

In 1885, many in the East were seized with the Florida fever, Andrews among the rest. He believed that there was much to be made in speculation in Florida lumber. He in company with Charles Maltby of New Haven, Mr. Alvord of Bristol and Reggs Brothers of Seymour, embarked in the scheme. They fitted out a schooner with a quantity of material for a mill and shipped it to Palatka, Fla. From there they went up the St. Johns to Highland Park, where he established the second largest mill in the State, and began contracting. For a while he succeeded, but then a drop in lumber, and a failure of some of his contracts, caused an almost complete failure of his Florida plan. He mortgaged his property in Naugatuck and afterwards raised some money on a second mortgage to his father-in-law, and $2000 from Mr. Maltby. He took his wife with him to Florida and made another attempt to succeed, but again he failed.

He and his wife became troubled with malarial fever, and she was compelled to return to Connecticut. He was afraid that he would be regarded as an unsuccessful speculator, and he would not return. His troubles, together with his sickness, somewhat affected his mind, and it became generally believed among his men that all was not right with him. He treated his men badly, and he used to disappear at intervals and then return, unable to give an account of himself.

It was on New Year's Day, 1886, that he finally disappeared from Florida. On that day he was seen in Jacksonville. Where he went no one knew, and some of the negroes intimated that he had been murdered. As nothing could be learned of him, this report was sent back to Connecticut.

Search was made for him all over the South, and a reward of $500 was offered for his discovery. However, not a trace could be found of him, and he was finally mourned as murdered. The Masonic lodge of which he was a member, adopted this theory, and his wife was paid $3000 life insurance held by a Masonic insurance association. She paid Mr. Maltby what her husband owed him, and his property was sold at a foreclosure of mortgage sale, and bought by his father-in-law, and turned over to his wife. A Connecticut life insurance company that held $10,000 on his life refused to pay it on the evidence of death presented.

Andrews's partners tried to carry on the Florada mill, but it shortly burned down without insurance.

Several blind leads were followed up, but no trace was found of the missing man.

One day in the summer of 1886 a man suddenly found himself wandering in the streets of Los Angeles. How he got there he never knew, but he found himself without money or friends. It was E. M. Andrews, and about six months from the New Year's day when he disappeared from Florida. He decided that he would make a name and a fortune here before he returned to his family, and he began his old business of contracting. It was in the days of the boom, and there was money to be made in southern California, and Mr. Andrews prospered. When the boom burst he went to Washington Territory, but eventually came to Oakland, where he lived for six months and then took up his residence in Alameda.

In September he decided that he had $20,000, enough to make a respectable showing in his old home, and he wrote back East that he was alive and well. He then completed his arrangements to return, and he will shortly go back to the family that has mourned him as dead for so long.

The insurance paid by the Masonic society has been returned, and Mr. Andrews will eat a Christmas dinner with his family this year.

He Did Not Elope.

Will B. Hopkins of this city, now of Tacoma, where he is stopping with his bride, has denied that he eloped. He claims that his parents knew that he was to be married, and as he was compelled to leave San Francisco at a moment's notice, and not desiring to have the ceremony postponed, the young lady, Miss Jennie Whiteside of San Jose, joined him there. His wife is a niece of the late Sunset Cox.

Two Sore Heads.

Two men who made turbulent the saloon of Kayser & Hugo on Broadway, south of Seventh street, attacked Special Officer Ross when last night he tried to arrest them. He used his club and subdued him. At the prison they gave the names of John O'Rourke and William Harter.

Mischievous Tommy.

Thomas Mahoney, a mischievous boy, 10 years old, who enjoys himself by driving horses he finds tied at curbs, is in jail for violating the curfew ordinance.

REPUBLIC.

The Brazilian States Accept the New Regime.

Business at a Standstill, But There Is no Disturbance.

Whereabouts of the Imperial Family Unknown.

Obligations of the Old Government Will Be Fulfilled.

Special to The Oakland Tribune by Western Associated Press.

REPUBLIC OF BRAZIL.

The New Government Accepted by All the Provinces.

RIO JANEIRO, November 18.—The Government has announced it will firmly maintain order. It is preparing a circular to foreign Governments relative to the overthrow of the empire, which will be telegraphed to them through Brazilian representatives abroad.

The Province of Bahia has signified its adherence to the republic.

The news from other Provinces shows that they are also in favor of a republican form of government.

THE REPORTS CONFIRMED.

Business in Brazil at a Standstill—Where is the Imperial Family?

LONDON, November 18.—The dispatches received here this afternoon from Rio Janeiro reiterate the statement that the proclamation of a republic met with no opposition.

The latest intelligence received at Rio Janeiro indicated that Bahia and Pernambuco were in a state of tranquility.

The people everywhere are so much absorbed in the new order of things, politically, that business is at a complete standstill.

There is said to be considerable mystery at Rio Janiero in regard to the departure of the Emperor and family. It is asserted in some quarters that he has not yet left the country.

The British mail steamer Atrate, from Montevideo for Southhampton, is due at Rio Janeiro tomorrow, and some believe that the imperial party will take passage upon that steamer.

REVOLUTION WAS EXPECTED.

The Brazilian Delegate to the Marine Conference Retires.

WASHINGTON, November 18.—Nothing has been received at the State Department today concerning the revolution in Brazil. The failure to receive additional information leads the department officials to think the cables have been seized.

Among navy officers no surprise was expressed at the news of the revolution. One officer said that twenty years ago, when he was in Brazil, there was a general feeling that when Dom Pedro's reign ceased a republican form of government would be instituted.

Lieutenant Barry, who recently returned from Brazil, says the change which has come to pass was openly talked of among Brazilians as possible to occur and they expected it at any time. To the people of Brazil he said it could not appear to have been sudden.

At the Marine Conference today Admiral Wile of Chile announced that he had been requested by Captains Gama and Mauritz, delegates from Brazil, to say that in view of the present condition of affairs in their country, that they would no longer sit in the Conference.

COFFEE FIRMER.

Excitement in the New York Exchange, But Faith in the Market.

NEW YORK, November 18.—There was great excitement and a big attendance at the coffee exchange this morning, due to the interest felt in the Brazilian situation.

Up to 11:30 o'clock the usual Rio cable had not arrived, and all attention was centered on expectation of the news it would bring.

Coffee advanced from fifteen to fifty-five points over Saturday's closing on first call. Twenty thousand, seven hundred and fifty bags were sold.

TWO IDYLS.

Miss Benfey's Tennysonian Recital This Evening.

Miss Ida Benfey's farewell recital at the Oakland Theater this evening will be an event of more than ordinary interest, considering the character of the subjects chosen by the elocutionist. The programe has been divided into two parts, the first presenting the idyllic comedy of Tennyson's "Gareth and Lynette," and the second depicting the climax of the tragedy of "Guinevere," King Arthur's discovery, his visit to the Queen and the repentance of the fair and passionate woman who loved the knight beyond reproach. There are few elocutionists who can tell this story, with all its varying emotions and depth of feeling, as Miss Benfey can, and her rendition this evening will be one to live in the memory of those who hear it. The programme will also include classical music by a choir under the direction of Rev. John Rea. The entertainment is for the benefit of the Fabiola Hospital, and the public has already responded generously, nearly all the seats in the theater being already reserved.

The ladies in charge of the entertainment specially request the audience to be in their seats promptly at 8 o'clock, thus avoiding annoyance to those who arrive in time to hear the beginning of the recital.

Engineer Allardt's Bill.

An ordinance will be introduced at the Council meeting this evening authorizing payment to George F. Allardt of $50 for services as consulting engineer in preparing a report on proposed public improvements. The Board of Works, by whom Engineer Allardt was employed, has approved the claim.

Suffering Ended.

The clothing left at the attached laundry, 361 Ninth street, was returned to the owners this afternoon.

LAWYERS MEET.

The Plan to Establish a Law Library Discussed.

In pursuance of a call a number of attorneys met at the Courthouse Saturday afternoon for the purpose of discussing a scheme to establish a public law library. The attendance was very small, there being present Attorneys J. E. McElrath, L. T. Carr, J. C. Martin, A. P. Holland, E. O. Crosby, H. Miller, C. G. Dodge, G. W. Fry, G. W. Langan, J. G. Chesbro, H. W. Lewis, R. L. McKee, and Judge W. E. Greene.

Chairman McElrath stated the object of the meeting, and remarked that the time had come to establish a public law library in this city.

Judge Greene said it was a great waste of time to be compelled to travel to San Francisco.

It was stated that a room could be fitted up for $200.

J. C. Martin, J. E. McElrath, and R. L. McKee offered to contribute books to the library.

Judge Greene suggested that it would be a good idea to incorporate the bar association and issue stock.

On motion of J. C. Martin a committee of five, including the Chairman, was appointed to formulate a plan of organization as follows: J. E. McElrath, J. C. Martin, W. E. Greene, J. A. Moore and John R. Glascock.

A communication was received from Hon. Charles N. Fox expressing his regrets at his inability to be present, and saying that he recognized the object as an important one and would be glad to do anything in his power to promote its success.

The meeting then adjourned to convene at the call of the Chairman.

A MYSTERIOUS ACCIDENT.

A Blind Man Run Over by an Unidentified Vehicle.

Francis Castro, a blind man living at 1896 Grove street, was struck by either a cable car or wagon on San Pablo avenue at Twenty-first street and quite badly injured, on Friday last. Mr. Castro has been blind for years, and he was attempting to cross the avenue when he was knocked senseless. He says that he heard no warning but that he was knocked senseless.

His daughter, Mrs. Mesquito, says that she called upon Officer Quackenbush and Moore, and that the former treated her very impolitely and laughed at her, and finally told her that she was trying to get material for a damage suit.

Assistant Superintendent G. A. Loring of the cable road, has two men in his employ who saw the accident, and say that it was due to a man driving a single horse in a buggy, and that the man shouted to Mr. Castro. However, Mr. Castro, whose hearing, like that of all blind men, is remarkably good, says he heard no warning or bell.

EVANS' ESTATE.

His Will is Probated in the East.

Some weeks ago Public Administrator James Stanley applied to be appointed administrator of the estate of A. F. Evans, deceased, who died suddenly from brain trouble while under the care of Mrs Dr. De Pue. He had been granted special letters of administration on the estate and took charge of all the personal effects of the deceased. A few days ago he received word that the will of the deceased had been probated in the East and an executor had been appointed. As there is no property here Mr. Stanley this morning asked that his petition might be dismissed. The personal property, consistingmostly of jewelry, will be turned over to the executor of the estate.

The Policeman's Romance.

Last evening at 7:30 o'clock Michael Powers and Mrs. Mary Nolan were united in marriage by Rev. Thomas McSweeney at St. Francis de Sales Church before a large number of the friends of the contracting parties. By this wedding the little romance which has been interesting the residents of East Oakland for some little time is concluded for the present. The charges against Powers by the Chief of Police of leaving his beat to see his fair one have not yet been investigated by the Fire and Police Commissioners.

Alfonse Versterren, the coachman who was a rival of Powers for the hand of the fair one, now threatens vengeance.

Shooting in the Annexed Territory.

Residents of the annexed territory have recently complained of young men who shoot at waterfowl at the head of the lake. A load of shot went through a window on Vernon Heights recently. Police protection was asked and the Chief of Police assigned an officer to arrest the hunters. Yesterday a young man was arrested for shooting there. This morning he told Judge Laidlaw that, like Mr. De Guia, he did not know when he fired the shot, he was within the city limits. Promising to be good he was released without punishment.

A Directory Census

The new directory for Oakland is about ready for distribution. This city and the adjacent hamlets of Temescal, Fruit Vale, Claremont, Piedmont, Golden Gate, and Lorin form one basis of estimate of population, and the figure is 63,000. Alameda is given 11,600 inhabitants. Berkeley is not rated. The directory contains something like 1000 more names than the one of last year.

An Angry Father.

P. Bruhn, father of the young girl whom Rudolph Franke married and afterward returned to her parents, threatens to make things interesting for the gay pickler. He says his daughter is much prostrated from having been sent home so soon after her confinement, and as to the infant not being Franke's child, Mr. Bruhn repudiates the assertion. He says he has retained able legal talent to sue Franke for alimony and one-half his property.

Those Ownerless Watches.

A few months ago John Brown, a car cleaner, found one gold watch and two silver watches with chains, one with a badge of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, in a car at West Oakland. He took them to the Chief of Police, who gave public notice of the discovery of the articles. No person has claimed them, and the Chief this morning returned them to Brown.

Palmer's Land Attached.

James G. Fair has caused the land of H. J. Palmer in Alameda to be attached. The attachment was made on a suit brought in Yolo county, wherein Fair seeks to recover $30,000 on a note given by Palmer.

One in the Firm.

Thomas B. Potter has filed a certificate with the County Clerk declaring that he is conducting business under the name of T. B. Potter & Co.

A Home for His Bride.

A $10,000 residence will be erected at Lorin by R. N. Schneider of the Michigan Furniture Company, who was recently married.

FOR HIS LIFE.

A Desperate Struggle in the Dark.

ED COATES DISARMS AN ASSASSIN

Who Wanted His Money and His Life—At the Muzzle of a Pistol—Escape of the Robber.

Ed Coates is an eccentric old bloater, who keeps a little store on the corner of Fourteenth and Adeline streets, where he deals out groceries and small articles to the neighbors at a small profit. Coates is regarded as having money hidden somewhere, and last night he met with a rather disagreeable experience that came very near costing him his life.

It was about half or a quarter past eight, and he had closed his store for the night, and gone to bed, not feeling very well. It had been raining all day, and there were indications of more rain, in the shape of heavy black clouds that made the little gas lamp on the corner seem dim and ineffective. As Coates was about retiring in his quarters above the store, he heard a rapping on the door below, and getting up he found a young man standing at the door.

"I want a dollar's worth of sugar," he announced.

So Coates got up and lit a little hand lamp and went down-stairs.

The young man wore a dark soft hat, pulled well down on his eyes, and to all appearances he was about 23 years old. He talked pleasantly with Coates about various matters, asking the price of sugar and various other articles. Coates replied, and the stranger remarked:

"Guess I'll have quite a load to pack."

"Perhaps you don't want so much," suggested Coates.

"That's what they told me to get," he replied. "They're going to have a little candy pulling down here."

Coates put up the sugar and then the young man remarked that he was very thirsty and he wanted a drink. Coates took up the lamp and told the young man to precede him into the back room. He obeyed, and they went into the back room, and from there, turning to the left, into a small kitchen. There was a sink and a glass, and the young drew a beer mug half full of water and took a sip.

Just as he took a mouthful he turned around, and drawing a revolver he pointed it directly in Mr. Coates face, and said:

"Now old man, come out."

"What will I come out for? "I ain't that kind," replied Coates, as he set the lamp down on a box and grasped the barrel of the pistol.

Then ensued a struggle for the possession of the weapon. Coates, who had been in such scenes before, was cool and collected. He held the barrel of the revolver with his right hand and tried to hit the fellow with his left, but he could not get in a blow that would have any effect.

In the struggle the revolver was discharged and the bullet, a 44 caliber slug, bored its way into the wall. The concussion, being right next the lamp, extinguished it, and left Coates and the young man struggling in a little, narrow, dark room for the possession of a self acting revolver. Coates eventually succeeded in obtaining the weapon and remarked:

"Now I am going to shoot you with your own weapon that you tried to shoot me with, and that is the meanest death any man could have."

The young fellow begged hard, and Coates went to call some assistance. He came back with Mr. Owens and some others, but found that the man had escaped out of a back door and scaled the fence. He, however, left some footsteps in the back yard, and Mr. Coates covered them with boxes, so that the rain would not obliterate them. Mr. Coates also had the revolver, a pearl handled, 44 caliber, 5 shot affair. Mr. Coates escaped with no injuries except a scratch on the hand, caused by the hammer as it fell.

Ed Coates has been knocking around on this coast for 40 years, and came here way back in the dim and romantic past of '49. Of course, he has been a miner, and he now amuses the children in the neighborhood of his little store with stories of his hairbreadth escapes in the mines and how he used to prospect on the banks of the Feather and the American rivers. He is reported to have made money in his mining days, and he is reported as an old eccentric bachelor with a considerable amount of money stowed away. This was undoubtedly the motive of the assault, but Coates was wary. He did not walk into the rear of the store ahead of the stranger, but behind him, and thus had the man at a disadvantage. Coates has been through several similar scenes in the mines and he was cool and knew just how to handle the man, and that knowledge and prompt action saved his life.

A Scotchman's Outfit.

A middle aged dude walked into Joyce's dry goods store on Saturday evening, explained that he was going to a ball, and asked to be supplied with some new clothing. He was soon arrayed in new shirt, collar, and vest. "Make a demand on the Bank of Scotland," said he to the astonished clerk who had served him, and then went to the shoe store of J. Young and ordered a pair of slippers. Mr. Joyce followed him to the shoe store, and induced him to return the clothing, except the shirt. Then he was arrested, and at the City Prison was booked as a suspect of insanity. This morning he seemed in his right mind, and probably on Saturday he had a large red taste in the mouth. He gave his name as James Monair, and announced his employment at Senator Stanford's stables at Palo Alto.

City Tax Moneys.

An apportionment of money received from taxes was made this morning by Auditor Snow and Treasurer Gilpin. The sums apportioned were $52,798 72 for taxes on property within the city limits before the limits were extended, and $505 26 for taxes on property in the annexed territory. The Treasurer will pay registered warrants on Salary fund up to registered number 418, and all demands on the Street fund. The School fund contains money, but not enough to redeem all registered warrants without borrowing from the money received for insurance on the High school fund.

Manager Chubbuck.

The office of Wells, Fargo & Co. in this city was turned over to the new manager, S. W. Chubbuck, on the 8th inst., and although he has formally taken charge of the company's affairs he has not yet settled down to business. He departed for the Southern country two weeks ago and is expected to return this afternoon or tomorrow. The new agent was at one time Postmaster of Carson City and is a brother-in-law of J. J. Valentine, General Manager of the express Company.

WOLVES CAUGHT BY A LAMB.

The Inversion of the Fable of the Beasts of Prey in the Fold.

The enthusiasts who conduct religious services in tents on San Pablo avenue, between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-sixth streets, using the general name of Union Camp Meeting, have no fear of a wetting. Through the rain yesterday they offered prayer and praise in their own way. The evening service was attended by not the worshipers only, but by two of the ungodly, without the fear of God or the preachers in their hearts. These two unconverted ones of a stiffnecked generation, are Lyle McKee and Nobe Davis, youths about 17 years old. Union Camp Meeter Wood kept his eye like a hawk on the youths, and he saw them mingling with the saved, whisp ring, giggling and talking and punching the arms of the washed. Then Union Camp Meeter Wood swooped down on these wolves and the lamb captured them and led them not to the throne of grace, but to the feet of Police Officer Turvey, who took them to jail. Mr. Wood swore to a complaint accusing them of disturbing a religious meeting. Before Judge Laidlaw this morning they pleaded not guilty. They will be tried on Wednesday.

MORE BITUMEN.

Seven Blocks of Washington Street May Be Paved.

Progress of Work on Eighth Street—Broadway, Between Seventh and Eighth Streets.

While the newspapers are quarreling in San Francisco over bitumen and basalt block pavements and concrete foundations, the property owners of this city, satisfied with the excellence of the bituminous rock roadways laid here, are preparing to lay this smooth and durable pavement on street now paved with macadam. The streets on which this pavement has been laid are: Broadway, from First to Seventh streets; Ninth street, from Broadway to Washington street; Franklin street, from Seventh to Fourteenth streets; 50 feet on west side of Broadway, south of Ninth street, and a few blocks in the Terrace tract, familiarly known as the Coll Deane tract, east of Webster street, about Twenty-second street.

A contract has been awarded for paving Eighth street, from Franklin street to Washington street with bitumen, and the contractor, G. M. Perine, has begun the work. This contract was awarded to Mr. Perine by the property owners who will pay for the work after the contract was awarded by the Council to J. A. Fairchild. The property owners, as allowed by law, took the contract into their own hands and then assigned it to Perine. Mr. Fairchild has indicated some intention to contest the validity of the assignment of the contract from the property owners to Perine, but the latter seem perfectly satisfied, having on his side the property owners who will foot the bills, and is pursuing the work.

A resolution of intention to pave Broadway, from Seventh to Eighth streets with bitumen, was passed at the last meeting of the Council.

Now owners of property fronting on Washington street, between Seventh and Fourteenth streets, are bestirring themselves to pave the roadway of that important thoroughfare with bitumen. F. K. Shattuck and John S. Dean are circulating a petition to the Council asking that the improvement be made. Each owns property on Washington street, and their imposing signatures head the petition. Their purpose is not to construct such a costly roadway as that on Broadway, south of Seventh street, and will ask for specifications requiring a foundation less expensive than the six inches of concrete under the bitumen on lower Broadway. They propose also to construct the bitumen roadway to the curbs, and not to build basalt block curbs. The petition may be presented to the Council this evening. An attempt was made to lay this kind of pavement on Washington street at the same time bitumen was laid on Franklin street. The necessary notices were printed and bids were received. One firm offered to do the work for very much less than any of the other bidders, but the contract was never awarded. The low bidder was allowed to withdraw his bid without penalty, and a slight suspicion about this event in street contracts has never been dispelled from the minds of the knowing. The present efforts to pave the roadway will probably be successful.

SHE WILL FIGHT.

The Wife of Rudolph Franke Will Contest His Suit.

Wilhelmina Franke has announced her intention of contesting the suit of her husband, Rudolph Franke, wherein he seeks to annul the marriage on the grounds of fraud and deceit. The girl gave birth to a child a few months after the marriage, and hence the anger of her husband. The wife avers that Franke has kept company with her for more than a year, and that he is the father of her child. Prior to the marriage Franke was sued by the girl to recover $25,000 damages for seduction. The suit was, however, dismissed upon his making her his wife. It is said that the girl will sue for a divorce and alimony.

At the Hospital.

John Jones was treated at the Receiving Hospital yesterday for a painful cut over the right eye, caused by being struck with a beer glass in a saloon on Filbert street.

Emil Herman, a man 60 years of age, fell down on the sidewalk on Franklin street. He was removed to the hospital, and was found to be suffering from asthma.

THE DEBIT SIDE.

The Earth in Account With J. Pluvius, Esq.

ONE INCH AND A QUARTER OF RAIN.

The Unroofed High School Receives a Bath and the Approaches to the Garfield School Flooded.

The Signal Service Bureau has no station a thousand miles out in the Pacific Ocean where a solitary observer might listen to the moaning of the wind, look seaward upon massing banks of lowering clouds, and then announce to General Greely, he of the long hair, a storm blown landward by the vagrom breezes. Thus mused Chief Observer Sanborn of the Hardesson Meteorological Bureau this morning as he cast up the account of the earth with J. Pluvius, and debited the earth with 1.21 inches of rain during the present storm, up to the hour of 7 A. M. today. "These storms all come from the ocean," said observer Sanborn, "and the Signal Service cannot predict them because it has no information about what cyclones are occurring miles out at sea."

On Saturday evening the sky was clear, but the wind was gradually veering from the westward to the southeast. When the breezers awoke yesterday after sweet dreams of nickels dropped in a slot, causing a trumpet to sound and a volunteer choir of angels to sing music, music taken from operas, but of course not operatic music, they heard the patterings of the drops on the windows on the southern and eastern sides of the houses, and thought of sparse congregations at the morning services. During the Sunday the rain fell heavily, dropping a shower on the faithful at 11 o'clock, but holding an umbrella under the clouds in the evening to allow the worshipers to reach the churches without damp possessors. In the meantime heavy showers dashed upon the streets and yards and houses, the heaviest fall being about two o'clock this morning. The record of precipitation shows that 0.52 inches of rain have fallen this season since July 1st, 0.69 of an inch in July; 7.23 in inches in October, and 1.23 inches in November.

The rain is good. The way drops come when the complaining farmer would complain if they came not. It suits the grain growers and the grape growers and the cattle herders and the sheep rangers, and if it does not suit the people of the cities they must consider a moment that this rainfall saves the taxpayers $50 or $60 a day that would be spent for street sprinkling were a dry norther scaring up the macadam pavements and hurling pieces of rock in the eyes of pedestrians, and making driving a source of distress to the horses and misery to the drivers.

The rain fell upon an unroofed High school building, a building opened by the element of fire and now drenched by water. Of course the building is damaged, but no roof could be placed over the structure until plans and specifications are called for by the Board of Education, furnished by the Board of Works, approved by the Board of Education, until bids are asked by the Board of Works, and it a contract is awarded, until the contractor's bond is approved, and the contractor carries out the plans and specifications asked by the Board of Education, supplied by the Board of Works and approved by the Board of Education.

While the interior of the High school building was receiving a bath, the country round about the Garfield school on Twenty-third avenue was under water. Some obstruction to the surface drainage caused the water to collect in the gutters and the mud to cover the sidewalks, until pupils and teachers with difficulty reached school dry as to both feet. The Superintendent of Streets sent a wrecking gang to the school to break the dam and permit the glorious rain to flow unimpeded adown the avenues of the thriving community that has grown up since the California Cotton Mills made the thistle the national flower of the far eastern section of the city.

Little if any damage was caused to streets or sewers by the 1.21 inches of rain that fell since Saturday night and even in a rain-torn life is not altogether unworth the living if one knows how to live, and to live means to eat and to drink, more than anything else; but, alack! how few are those who do know how to drink and eat and wax.

AMUSEMENTS.

Frank Daniels has gained such a reputation as a comedian that the mere announcement of his participation in a play gathers an audience of good natured people, with ready-made smiles prepared to be worn whenever he speaks. For two seasons he has used but one play, the rollicking comedy farce, Little Puck, so called after an Indian idol, which transforms the grave and dignified man of mature years into a schoolboy, and the schoolboy into man's estate with a boy's heart. Such a farce as Little Puck depends for success upon the cleverness of the lines and the specialty acts of the performers. The writer of Little Puck has made the bright dialogue, and Daniels has collected a company of very clever specialists, including some winsome girls. The play attempts nothing but to amuse, and amuse it does. It will be given tomorrow and Wednesday evenings at the Oakland Theater.

FIELD DAY.

Concluding Events at the University Campus

Pole Vaulting—The Mile Walk—Half and Quarter Mile Races—The Mile Run—Other Events.

The Field Day sports that occurred at the university on Saturday continued after THE TRIBUNE went to press, and the following events took place:

Pole vaulting, won by H. A. Head, '91, by a vault of 8 feet 7½ inches, over E. C. Van Dyke, '93. Van Dyke then made an exhibition vault of 8 feet 6 inches, but this will not be allowed as it was only an exhibition vault.

W. Lubbert succeeded in wresting the championship in the mile walk. He had a handicap of 40 yards against A. J. Street with 15 yards and F. C. Clift, and covered the ground in 8 minutes 26 4-5 seconds.

The entries for the 220 yard race were E. Mays, '93, and E. W. McNear, '90. The latter withdrew, and his place was taken by D. Winter. The race was a lively one, both being easy and rapid runners. Mays reached the post first in 25 2-5 seconds.

When the half-mile run was announced E. W. Engs, '93, H. C. Head, '91, and A. B. Webster, '92, presented themselves. After a close contest Head was acknowledged the winner. He covered the distance in 2 minutes and 21 seconds.

The running high jump between E. C. Van Dyke, '93, R. V. Whiting, '93, and S. B. McNear, '93, was won by the latter without a handicap, his jump being 5 feet 1¾ inches.

The 440-yard Olympic Club race was run by W. A. Magee, scratch; J. J. O'Kane, 8 yards' handicap; J. J. Williams, 20 yards' handicap; S. V. Cassidy, 10 yards' handicap, and was won by Magee in 54 2-5 seconds.

A like dash for University men was made by F. W. McNear, '90, and A. D. Stoney, '90, with 12 yards' handicap. McNear proved an easy winner in 56 4-5 seconds.

There were four entries for the mile run, Philip L. Weaver, '91, W. Lubbert, 50 yards, A. A. Caldwell, '93, 40 yards, and Y. M. C. A. Burks, '93, 65 yards. On the third lap Lubbert dropped out. Caldwell ran excellently and with easy grace. He was closely pursued by Burks, with Weaver far in the rear. On the fourth round Burks turned his ankle and had to be carried from the track. Caldwell won in 5 minutes, 4 2-5 seconds.

The one mile relay race was the only class event of the day, and all previous records were broken. The entries were: '90, F. W. McNear, C. B. Lakenan, E. Coke Hill, A. D. Stoney, H. Howell; '91, J. Bouse, J. C. Ainsworth Jr., H. B. Gates, E. Bunnell, R. Gallagher; '93, E. Mays, Fred Pheby, W. I. Stewart, E. J. Gates, H. Hinckley. Of these teams the best runners were McNear and Lakenan, '90, Gates and Gallagher, '91, and Mays and Gates, '93. The class of '90, through McNear, became the victor, and the boys of the class shouted themselves hoarse, the horns of the band blared out the finale and the gathering dispersed.

The officers of the day were: Referee, Lieutenant G. F. E. Harrison, U. S. A.

Judges—Professor Frank Soule, J. A. Hammersmith, John Purcell.

Timers—Professor F. Slate, J. G. Sutton, '85, Colonel George C. Edwards, Walter Magee, W. I. Terry, '90.

Starter—George W. Jordan.

Judge of walking—F. R. Gibson.

Measurers—C. H. Bently, '91, H. B. Ainsworth, '91, J. A. Brewer, '91.

Clerk of the course—Hubert Dyer, '90.

Assistants—Frank T. Hittell, E. Coke Hill, '90.

Marshals—A. F. Allen, '91, Leslie Simson, J. H. White, '91.

The field sports of the Olympic Club will be held at the university grounds on Thanksgiving Day.

A number of the university sprinters are anxious to have a relay mile race against a team of the Olympics, and such an event will undoubtedly be arranged.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

is endured by the victims of inflammatory rheumatism, and any form of the disease may reach that agonizing phase or attack the heart and cause death. Unhappily they who feel its preliminary twinges seldom realize this. Like other possibly dangerous maladies, rheumatism is often disregarded at the outset. Well will it be for him if this brief notice shall serve as a warning of future peril or pain to a reader troubled with incipient rheumatism. The proper sequel will be an instantaneous resort to the great preventive depurent, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, whose brevet of professional commendation popular experience has confirmed. There is no finer or more genial antidote to the virus of rheumatism in the system. Botanic in its origin, it is free from the objections attaching to depurent poisons liable to be taken in more than the infinitesimal dose. The Bitters conquers malaria, indigestion, liver and kidney troubles.

Boils, carbuncles, and other skin eruptions indicate that the system is endeavoring to eject poisonous acids, and that Ayer's Sarsaparilla is imperatively needed. It is the most reliable of all blood medicines. Ask your druggist for it, and take no other.

FIELD OF SPORT.

An Accident to Sly Girl at Newark Yesterday.

The weather did not prevent the sports yesterday from enjoying some good coursing matches at Newark. John Grace acted as judge and J. O'Shea as slipper. In the run between Sly Girl and Harriet S., after one undecided race, Sly Girl was having the best of it. Harriet had not made a point when she ran into Sly Girl and broke her right hind leg, so that she will never be fit to run again. The result of the day's racing is as follows:

T. J. Cronin's Belle of Waterloo was defeated by J. Edmonds' Soldier Boy; J. J. Edmonds' Pippin Jr. was defeated by D. Shannon's Get There; M. Shanahan's Bones was defeated by T. T. Brady's Catherine Hayes; D. W. Swain's Little Mirk was defeated by J. Eagan's Maid of Erin; D. Shannon's Prima Donna was defeated by J. McCormick's Tipperary Girl; John Eagan's Sly Girl was defeated by J. O'Conner's Harriet S.; P. Lydon's Lady O'Brien was defeated by P. O'Donnell's Mission Boy; M. Hines' Lady Hines was defeated by J. Barry's Tipperary Clipper; D. Monahan's Lady Murphy was defeated by M. Tiernan's Flight W.; P. O'Connell's Peter Jackson was defeated by J. L. Meares' Examiner.

Soldier Boy beat Get There; Catherine Hayes beat Maid of Erin; Tipperary Girl beat Harriet S.; Tipperary Clipper beat Mission Boy; Flight W. beat Examiner.

Catherine Hayes beat Soldier Boy; Tipperary Clipper beat Tipperary Girl; Flight W. ran a bye with Prima Donna.

Catherine Hayes beat Flight W., and Tipperary Clipper ran a bye with Pippin Jr.

Catherine Hayes beat Tipperary Clipper for the final.

Catherine Hayes took first money, $40; Tipperary Clipper second, $25; Flight W. third, $15.

THE BOSTONS BEATEN.

The Bostons, who are on their way to this city, stopped over at Denver yesterday and were beaten by the St. Louis Browns. The score was 8 to 2.

GAMES POSTPONED.

The California League games, both at Haight street and Sacramento, were postponed yesterday on account of rain. The Oaklands returned from Sacramento last night.

THE ARIEL CLUB.

The Ariel Club of San Francisco is still talking of moving its boathouse to this side of the bay. The members, it is said, will consider the proposition at the next meeting. Charles G. Yale has offered them his boathouse.

THE LEAGUE RECORD.

During the past week the league record has not been materially changed. The Oaklands still have a good lead and they will surely win the pennant.

What Scott's Emulsion Has Done

Over 25 Pounds Gain in 10 Weeks. Experience of a Prominent Citizen.

THE CALIFORNIA SOCIETY FOR THE SUPPRESSION OF VICE, SAN FRANCISCO, July 7th, 1886.

I took a severe cold upon my chest and lungs and did not give it proper attention; it developed into bronchitis, and in the fall of the same year I was threatened with consumption. Physicians ordered me to a more congenial climate, and I came to San Francisco. Soon after my arrival I commenced taking Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites regularly three times a day. In ten weeks my avoirdupois went from 155 to 180 pounds and over; the cough meantime ceased.

The Right to Make Our Own Clothes

The city of Oakland is now undergoing some of the discomforts of wearing a new suit of clothes which, from one cause or other, does not fit the municipal body nicely in places. The fault is not with the tailors who made the cloth, but rather to the unaccommodating angularities created by the general law of the State. It is a new phase of the old conflict between special and general legislation, to which was largely due the calling of the Constitutional Convention. The feeling in that convention was so strong against special legislation that all special legislation, with the exception of charters for cities of more than 100,000 population, was forbidden. For cities of less population the Legislature was left to provide charters according to classes, and these might be adopted or let alone, as the citizens of such cities might elect. The city of Alameda is now working under such a charter, provided by the State law and adopted by the people. Later in amendment was adopted by which it is constitutional for cities of the class of Oakland, Los Angeles, San Diego and Stockton to frame charters suited to their special needs by the machinery of a Board of Freeholders. The four cities named have availed themselves of this privilege, and they are now in doubt whether their new organic laws have any force where they conflict with the State law, and further, whether their charters may not be wiped out bodily by an Act of the Legislature. The best opinion among lawyers appears to be that the State law governs, and holding this opinion it was impossible for Mayor Glascock to do otherwise than veto the electric road franchise. Nevertheless the situation is such that the City Council finds itself in the position of being compelled to ignore the State law or set back, perhaps for years, the prosecution of a great and valuable public improvement. That the Mayor's veto will be overridden seems to be quite likely, but it is unfortunate that the Council should be placed in such a position. It is true that the question of supremacy of the State law is still at bar and if the Supreme Court shall in the Ah You case hold that charters have a force superior to the acts of the Legislature, much of our perplexities will be solved. At the present writing there seems to be little hope of such a decision, and it is probable that the only course that will be left open is the slow and painful process of procuring another amendment to the Constitution which will make charters superior to the State law within the limits of the cities to which they may apply, and only subject to the limitations of the Constitution.

An interesting story is told by the New York Sun of the clever manner in which the President avoided the delicate question of deciding whether North or South Dakota should be the older State. He received the two proclamations at the same time and the question of priority at once came up, and it was found difficult to decide. It was a grave situation for the President to be in, and he evidently realized it, but he steered his way out without difficulty. The two documents, unlooked at, were laid face downward on the desk on a sheet of paper, and then they were shuffled until even a three card monte expert couldn't tell "t'other from which." When this stage of the game had been reached the proclamations were turned face upward, but protected from the gaze of the President by the sheet of paper upon which they had been laid. The sheet was slipped aside until the blank spaces for the President's signature were exposed. The autograph was appended, and after the ink was dry the proclamations were turned over once more and again vigorously shuffled. The two Dakotas were admitted into the Union of States, and although one of them was ahead of the other just the length of time it took the President to write his name, history will never be able to record the leader.

We offer our congratulations to the Pharmaceutical Society on its high sense of fitness evidenced by the reelection of Dr. S. H. Melvin of East Oakland as the official head of the body.

A competition of an unusual sort was proposed by the New York World, which offered $20 "for the best recipe for keeping a husband at home evenings." The offer does not imply that the editor needed advice on this point for personal use, but he felt that here was an ever smouldering fire ready to burst into a blaze at a breath. He has received in reply over 3000 letters, but we fear the question is as far from a decision as any of those others which depend for their satisfactory solution on an essential change of human nature. If we might be allowed to offer a solution (not for competition, it would be to have the husbands born again, with tastes identical with those of their possible wives. It is the misfortune of woman in this regard that she is so superior in moral make up and tendency to the Tyrant Man the extravagant and erring husband.

The assault committed in San Francisco by Kunze on the nose of the wrong Strauss was not to be mitigated, it appears, by profuse apologies that the blows were intended for a nose worn by another Strauss. It would, in fact, be dangerous to admit the principle urged by the belligerent Kunze, for every man of the whole Smithocracy might begin to feel his collective and individual nose in danger were the sins of Smith all and singular liable to be visited promiscuously on the beak of the first Smith which might offer an inviting mark. It is a nice question for the interpreters of the code of honor to decide whether the gentleman who was asked to consider himself kicked was in a better or worse position than the suffering Strauss, who was told that he been thumped vicariously.

The Social Gospel According to Smith.

"In writing, you address a gentleman as 'Esquire,' all others are 'Mr.' is the dictum of a social authority who may be called Smith. It is to be feared that "Mr." Smith will succeed in persuading the American people to adopt his views on this matter."

New York Sun.

The amount of mellifluous, but misspelled, misprinted, cigar box Castilian with which Mr. Blaine's excursion congress was hailed and hymned by the cities of the West is a fair evidence of their inventive skill, and a new argument for Volapuk. "Have you the silk hat of the President?" "No, Senor, but I have the stockings of silk and the umbrella with the silver handle from the emporium of Don Juan Wanamaker."

BAD SMELLS

Of Which the Residents of the Stockyards Partake.

The residents of Butchertown have organized for the purpose of abating nuisances in that section. They have become disgusted after long years of suffering from noisome smells and foul odors and the like, and have concluded that they would like a little fresh air. A committee has been appointed as follows: Ed Lawrence, Jerry Smith, Jame Welsh, J. H. Rourke, J. Stewart, William Stomas, and several more. It is the intention to compel those persons sewering into Dalton avenue to find some other means of disposing of refuse matter. As a roadway the avenue is in fine condition, but its gutters are otherwise. Among those maintaining nuisances on this street are the following: Charles Shethal throws refuse from his hair manufacturing works; John A. Bohere, who accumulates refuse from meat markets and renders it in open vats to obtain the lard. He gathers wagon loads at a time, and by the time it is ready for cooking much of it is putrified. All waste products he throws into the streets; John Congas keeps a chicken ranch on the avenue. He gathers the offal from the beach and throws it in small piles into his place to breed maggots; Peter Shostic has a hog ranch in the center of the town and he gathers all the swill of the neighborhood. A dry creek runs through the place, and this he has dammed in such a manner that it catches all the swill not eaten by the hogs, and also the other dirt and filth. A fish oil and glue factory is also on the line. All the waste particles of flesh from his place being slushed into the street. Add to this the refuse matter from the cottages on that street, and a most disgusting combination of gases is formed. On windy days the stench is blown as far down as Klinknerville, and a warm weather it is almost impossible to remain in the settlement. The Improvement Committee intend to do good work this winter, and are now arranging for a system of sewers to carry off this refuse matter.

Jumps and Bruises.

A young man by the name of Afferdi tried to board a local train yesterday afternoon at Peralta street. He was thrown to the ground and knocked insensible. He was badly cut and bruised. A drugstore man dressed his wounds, and when the patrol wagon arrived he was found well enough to go home alone. James Summers, an officer of the railroad company, called at the police station shortly afterwards and made a fuss because the injured man was not taken to the hospital. He was first informed that the railroad company was not running the Police Department.

Oscar Elver attempted to jump from the local yesterday at the same point, and fell, having the whole side of his face badly lacerated.

C. R. LEWIS

Has Something to Say in Reply to Dr. Dille.

Preachers Forget That the Young Are Human—The Value of a Sermon—A Business View.

The late Mr. Dille publishes his diatribe against theaters to the world (that, I believe, is the limit of THE TRIBUNE'S circulation), therefore it is in order for any who choose to answer.

I said, late Mr. Dille; for date of his extinguishment see the scholarly, manly, and convincing letter of the veteran Leman, published in THE TRIBUNE of Friday, the 15th.

Now, a Mr. Dille appoints himself critic and condemns all theaters. I think it in order to ask him where he gained his knowledge of them? what one did he attend? what was the play, and who were some of the actors? and thus we might be able to see if he does not confound the legitimate drama with vile dens which assume the name of the drama and which no decent people uphold. To class these all together and condemn all together is an unfair and unjust argument, whoever made by. A few days since, in an interior town, a preacher, one who had been shepherd to the flock, had buried them and married them, took it into his head to murder his wife and little son for no known cause and then his worthless self. It would be a perfectly parallel argument with Mr. Dille's to say that all preachers are murderers. And yet the world is fair enough to say that religion is just as sacred and preachers just as useful as though this vile wretch had not lived. No fair man charges any of this crime against religion or its followers.

I ask Mr. Dille if in his argument he is equally fair.

My family frequently attends the theater and enjoy doing so. I myself seldom go unless Shakespeare is played, then I always go (unless the tickets are above my reach) and on those occasions I have always seen as nice people as I ever saw in church or any other place, family groups, fathers, mothers, sons and daughters, and I have there seen the heart softened and the better angels of our nature so stirred by the representations of the stage that it were impossible to have not lost a little of earth and to have gained a little of the sublime, and for this—for this—we are on the broad road to perdition. Mr. Dille does not like the play. "He who hath not music in his soul is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils," a quotation as true as any ever written.

Mr. Dille also condemns all social games as cards, chess, checkers, etc. A family at home in the family parlor, father, mother, brother and sister engaged in a family game of whist, this is the road to hell. In this enlightened age the preacher who advocates this doctrine should have no intelligent hearers. To give support and aid to such is but to ridicule and embarrass true religion. This doctrine established and you have firmly planted bigotry and superstition and from thence but a step to the inquisition.

Mr. Dille gave some rules how families and young people were to enjoy themselves. "Allow not nature more than nature needs and man's life is cheap as beasts." Indeed, the enjoyment prescribed by him would make life very cheap, all good in its way, but how much more desirable to the young than would be the convent or monastery? Preachers, although awfully human themselves, seem to forget that the young are but human and must be amused as well as instructed. Mr. Dille started in this campaign to fill his church and put cash in its box; he succeeded in the former, but failed in the latter. For proof of this see his interview published in THE TRIBUNE. In that interview he asserted that the house was full of people, but the collections were insignificant; a great many paying nothing, and most of those who did pay put in but a nickel, and one person put in a 1 cent nickel; and in that interview he insinuated that they should have given as much as it cost to go to the theater.

That is what some would term "cad."

The majority of people are fair and pay what goods are worth, but if you try to over charge they will not have it, and these people that put in the nickels undoubtedly paid what they considered it worth to them, and even the fellow who put in the 1 cent, you see, intends to pay his way.

In conclusion, Mr. Dille has made an unnecessary warfare on harmless and useful amusements, to the disgust of a great many people, without any offsetting benefits to himself.

He filled his house with people by his sensation, but he put no cash in the box, about which his interview showed him to be very much annoyed. And for all, he has had his trouble for his pains, and people will still continue to go to the theater. C. R. LEWIS.

Representative McKenna.

Hon. Joseph McKenna and family took their departure for Washington from Suisun last Saturday night. He was escorted to the train by the citizens with a brass band. When the train arrived at Sacramento he was given a rousing reception. District Attorney Elwood Bruner made a speech on behalf of the citizens and Mrs. McKenna was presented with some beautiful floral tokens by the ladies.

No Island Wanted.

Owners of property in Twenty-first street, between Myrtle and Linden streets, protest against paving the block on the ground that such macadamizing would leave an unmacadamized block at each end of the improvement, which in rainy weather would be a lake of mud and entirely impassable.

Pleaded to a Felony.

Hy Schiebe, a young man accused of felony for assaulting a 10 year old girl, pleaded not guilty to the charge this morning, and his trial was set for November 23th.

NO CLEAN SHIRTS.

Two Weeks' Washing Tied up in a Chinese Laundry.

As the Sabbath approaches some young men are in dire need of clean shirts and collars, some good ladies are washing out soiled handkerchiefs and pasting them on the windows today, and some young misses are darning stockings heretofore thrown away as unfit for human pedal occupation. This awful dearth of clean clothes is caused by the attachment levied by H. Furst on the washhouse conducted by Wing Cook at 331 Ninth street. Furst owns the property, and his suit was brought to recover rent. The Constable attached the smoothing irons, the fluting machines, the bowls whence Wing Cook and his cousin, Quong Wong Gee, sipped water to squirt in rainbow haze over skirt and shirt and chemise, and the other property of the laundry, but not the clothes left there to be washed, ironed, fluted, polished, and worn out. After the attachment Wong Cook and his cousin, Quong Wong Gee, left the washhouse and have not since returned.

Two weeks passed and the patrons of Wong Cook and his cousin, Quong Wong Gee, wanted some clean clothes. They went to the washhouse and asked for their garments. A Chinaman with seeming authority said:

"No catch 'em clo. You wait see bossy. He come back bimeby, washy, ironey; then send 'em clo."

"But I want my clothes, I'll take them to some other place to have them washed."

"No can. You wait, bimeby bossy come back."

No clothes were surrendered by the charge d'affaires. The customers began to clamor. Finally Mrs. Pauline Aitvater went to the City Hall and obtained a search warrant and an officer recovered her clothing.

On Saturday Deputy District Attorney Church was besieged by women applying for search warrants. He was convinced after investigation that he had no right to give Mrs. Aitvater the warrant, and he refused all applications this morning on the ground that the law does not permit the machinery of the search warrant unless crime is alleged or feared, and no crime seems committed with this case.

"Bossy" has not come back, and the clothes remain in the laundry at 331 Ninth street.

ESTATES IN PROBATE.

THE HIGH SCHOOL WRECK.

The Furniture Removed—Slight Damage.

The rain has done some little damage to the partially burned High school, but unless it clears up it is more than likely that the damage will be very great. Fortunately the rain did not come until the wreck had been cleaned out. All the furniture had been removed; that which is uninjured to the sheds in the rear for storage, and that which needs repairing to the Sterling Furniture Company and Burnham, Standeford and Co's. mill. This leaves little to be injured, save the plastering and the flooring, but as yet this has not been materially damaged. A storm of several days, however, would completely ruin this.

It was the intention of the Board of Public Works to put a roof on the building as soon as possible, but the Board of Education demanded some changes in plans, and it will take architect Matthews seven or eight days to make these changes, and until the board gets the plans and specifications they can do nothing, and the High school will have to remain exposed to the storm.

Graded Licenses.

The Council Committee on Ordinance and Judiciary will report unfavorably upon the passage of an amendment to the liquor license ordinance grading the licenses according to the kinds of liquor sold. The amendment when submitted had the approval of Rev. F. A. Horton and others of the clergy, who since then have withdrawn their indorsement, having given it through a misunderstanding.

"I am troubled with Hemorrhages from the lungs," writes George W. Warner, Manager of the Morning Times of Scranton, Pa., "and I find Pond's Extract to be the only remedy that will absolutely control them. I have had as many as sixteen Hemorrhages inside of two weeks before I tried your medicine. I take it now and then to keep back the bleeding."

The Duke of Portland.

The first and only buffalo born West of the Rocky Mountains is now on exhibition at the corner of Fourteenth and Broadway. The baby buffalo was born October 1, 1889, at Portland Oregon. The father and mother are two of the finest specimens ever on exhibition. Both were captured wild on their native plains. The grizzley bear, is without doubt the largest and finest one of his age, in captivity. Another interesting animal is the jaguar, brought from South America by two ladies, when a kitten. Darwins' missing link and the large variety of monkeys and the happy family never fail to please. A very interesting feature are the Alaska curios and the panorama of Dante's vision of the infernal. All combined makes one of the most unique and interesting shows now on the coast. Col. Winston comes well recomended by the religious and daily journals of Portland, where he remained over three months. Admission, adults 15c, children 10c.

MILK WHEN PLACED IN SEALED jars, while warm and fresh from the cows, has the following advantages:

1.—IT IS MORE CLEANLY, not being exposed to blow-dust or dirt, or to the dripping wet hands of the driver.

2.—ITS QUALITY MAY BE SEEN AT A GLANCE: the cream and color is itself a guaranty.

3.—IT WILL KEEP SWEET LONGER, because in transportation the bottles will not churn the milk; there can be no churning.

4.—THE FLAVOR IS BETTER, because it is void of the metallic flavor caused by the action of the temperature and churning of the milk in the tin cans.

Ed Schmidt returned from Suisun late last evening, where he went to look for the body of William Stork. He states that there was no truth in the rumor that the young man was in jail for trespassing on leased hunting grounds, as he went through every jail in the county and did not find him. He also states that there is no doubt whatever but that the young man was drowned, as both boats with all the hunting outfit were found in the middle of the marsh. The water is over forty feet deep where the accident is supposed to have taken place. About fifty men dragged the marsh with hooks yesterday. Dynamite cartridges were set off at a depth of fifteen feet, but without effect. The body will rise to the surface of its own accord today or tomorrow, as the man was drowned on the 11th of this month.

I was confined to my bed when the doctor called, and without a word or question he gave me a complete history of my disease and described my symptoms, and while under his treatment, for thirty days, I rapidly improved, and have no further use for supporters.

The book is one which will prove of absorbing interest to the youth of both sexes. It is bound in a handsome cover of green and gold, and is enlivened by numerous illustrations. Published by D. Lothrop Company, Boston. Price, $1. For sale by W. B. Hardy.

"Pens and Types, or Hints and Helps for Those Who Write, Print, Read, Teach, or Learn," by Benjamin Drew, is a most invaluable compendium for persons engaged in any of the above vocations. It will prove an invaluable aid to those who are engaged in trying to train the young in habits of correctness and accuracy in the use of their mother tongue. This, being the second edition of this inestimable work, contains many new chapters, and the fact that the author is an old newspaper man is sufficient in itself to commend the book. Published by Lee & Shepard, Boston. Price, $1. For sale by W. B. Hardy.

"Roland Oliver," by Justin McCarthy, M. P., is No. 100 of the popular Globe Library, published by Rand, McNally & Co., Chicago. The book is an interesting romance, the principal scenes of which are laid in London. The interest throughout the work is kept unflagging and the climax is all that could be desired. Price, 50 cents. For sale by the booksellers.

"Bohemian Days," by Clara Moyse Tadlock, is the title of a work of travels around the world. The book is written in a breezy, entertaining style, and is made doubly interesting by the great number of excellent illustrations. Published by John B. Alden, New York. Price, $1 50. For sale by W. B. Hardy.

Redway, are two works on this interesting study by acknowledged able authors, and contain not only some of the traditions of geography, viewed in the light of modern science, but are also of invaluable and incalculable benefit and aid to school teachers, giving in some of the chapters excellent hints and suggestions for the benefit of teachers. Published by D. C. Heath & Company, Boston. Price, each, 75 cents. For sale by W. B. Hardy.

"The New Eldorado, a Summer Trip to Alaska," by Maturin M. Ballou. This prolific writer of travels has again succeeded in presenting to the public another charming book. "The New Eldorado, or a Summer Trip to Alaska," is without exception the best written descriptive work on Alaska that has so far appeared. It will be especially interesting to all such who have made the trip and who will properly appreciate its exactness of detail and nicety of description, for which its author is so justly renowned. Published by Houghton, Mifflin & Co., Boston and New York. For sale by W. B. Hardy.

"Osborne of Arrochar," by Amanda M. Douglas, is an intensely interesting novel. The situations are striking and dramatical in the extreme, and the book absorbs one's attention from beginning to end. The plot is excellent and the characters are drawn with unusual care. The most agreeable feature of the volume is that it does not contain a dull page. Published by Lee & Shepard, Boston. Price, $1 50. For sale by W. B. Hardy.

"The State, Historical and Practical Politics," by Woodrow Wilson, is a text book of historical and practical politics and a sketch of institutional history and administration. Published by D. C. Heath & Co., Boston. For sale by W. B. Hardy.

"The Hermitage and Later Poems," by Edward Rowland Sill, late Professor of English Literature in the University of California.

This volume begins with that remarkable poem, the "Hermitage," which, next to "The Venus de Milo," is considered the author's masterpiece. In this poem as the New York Tribune justly remarked "Rhyme could not contain this thinker and he took refuge in rhythm." The book contains a number of his later poems which all tend to show his skill as a versifier. Published by Houghton, Mifflin & Co., Boston and New York. Price $1. For sale by W. B. Hardy.

"The Favorite Speaker," by George M. Baker, is a neatly bound volume of fresh selections in poetry and prose, comprising the humorous, pathetic and patriotic. Published by Rand, McNally & Co., Chicago and New York. Price 75 cents. For sale by the booksellers.

"A Summer in a Canyon," a California story by Kate Douglas Wiggin, is a most charming and entertaining story of camp life in a country that has no peer, so far as climate, scenery, game and all that is necessary to make a camper happy is concerned. Published by Houghton, Mifflin & Co., Boston and New York. Price $1 50. For sale by W. B. Hardy.

"An Introduction to the Study of Shakespeare," by Hiram Corson, LL. D., Professor of English Literature, Cornell University. This work is an eminently successful attempt to indicate to the student some lines of Shakespearean study which may serve to introduce him to the study of plays as plays. The author has shown a wonderful power of research and study into the never failing and interesting study of Shakespeare. Published by D. C. Heath & Co., Boston. For sale by W. B. Hardy.

"In a Fair Country," illustrated by Irene E. Jerome, and containing essays from "Out Door Papers," by Thomas Wentworth Higginson, is an elegantly bound edition "de Luxe" of those charming essays of Thomas Wentworth Higginson, and contains illustrations which are beautiful lithographs and marvels of art. The art work in itself is worth more than the price of the volume. The subjects taken from "Out Door Papers" are as follows: "April Days," "My Out Door Study," "Water Lilies," "The Life of Birds," "The Procession of Flowers," and the pictorial representations of these subjects are something unsurpassed, and reflect great credit upon Miss Jerome. Catarrh Can't Be Cured with LOCAL APPLICATIONS as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you have to take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surface. Hall's Catarrh Cure is no quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surface. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials free.

F. J. Cheney & Co., Props., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, price 75 cents.

Catarrh

Is a constitutional and not a local disease, and therefore it cannot be cured by local applications. It requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, working through the blood, eradicates the impurity which causes and promotes the disease, and effects a permanent cure. Thousands of people testify to the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for catarrh when other preparations had failed. Hood's Sarsaparilla also builds up the whole system, and makes you feel renewed in health and strength.

Catarrh

"I used Hood's Sarsaparilla for catarrh, and received great relief and benefit from it. The catarrh was very disagreeable, especially in the winter, causing constant discharge from my nose, ringing noises in my ears and pains in the back of my head. The effort to clear my head in the morning by hawking and spitting was painful. Hood's Sarsaparilla gave me relief immediately, while in time I was entirely cured. I am never without Hood's Sarsaparilla in my house as I think it is worth its weight in gold."—Mrs. G. B. Gibb, 1029 Eighth street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

OFFICIAL DRAWING

—OF THE—

Louisiana State Lottery,

Single Number, Class "L,"

—DRAWN AT—

NEW ORLEANS, - - La.,

—ON—

Tuesday, November 12, 1889.

ALL GENUINE LOUISIANA STATE Lottery Tickets are dated New Orleans and agree to pay all prizes in New Orleans, where the company holds its Charter from the State, and where both the purchaser of a ticket and the company are equally protected by the laws of the state and of the United States. Tickets dated and issued from other cities in the name of the Louisiana State Lottery Company, promising to pay prizes in other places than New Orleans, are not Louisiana State Lottery Tickets at all, but are counterfeits and cheats intended to deceive and defraud the unwary.

Remember that One Dollar is the price of the smallest part or fraction of a ticket issued in any drawing. Anything in our name offered at a less price is either a counterfeit or a swindle. Remember further, when examining to see if your ticket has drawn a prize, never to accept anything but our official drawings, which are copyrighted under the Act of Congress and cannot be reprinted correctly under penalty of the law.

DRUNKENNESS

(Or the Liquor Habit), Positively Cured by administering Dr. Haines' Golden Specific.

It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the person taking it; is absolutely harmless, and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been made temperate men who have taken Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and to-day believe they quit drinking of their own free will. IT NEVER FAILS. The system once impregnated with the Specific it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist. 48 Page Book of particulars free. For sale by P. J. CHURCH NEWS.

Scholarships in the Howard University.

TWO FOR DR. J. K. M'LEAN'S CHURCH

An Effort on Foot to Get a Young Men's Christian Association Building at the University.

Dr. Dille delivered an interesting address on "Christian Manliness" before the Young Men's Christian Association in San Francisco yesterday afternoon.

The students of the university have subscribed $1000 toward a Young Men's Christian Association Building at that institution. It is understood that some one has agreed to donate $25,000 toward the building if as much more can be raised, and, having done the best they can among themselves, they propose now to appeal to the public and the faculty.

Rev. N. R. Johnston of Oakland, Rev. Dr. Briggs of Pacific Grove and Rev. A. Calhoun of San Jose have been appointed a committee by the American Sabbath Union to organize a local union for the revival of Sunday legislation. Mr. Johnston will respond to all calls to speak in public, Sabbath law meetings or to preach on the Sabbath question.

Dr. Dille has accepted the invitation of San Francisco Methodists to repeat his lecture on "The Saloon." It will be delivered at the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, on Mission street between Sixth and Seventh streets, on Thursday evening, November 21st. Admission will be free.

The California Chinese Mission (Congregational), which held its annual meeting at Association Hall, San Francisco, last Monday, re-elected Rev. Dr. McLean of this city President and Rev. Dr. Pond of San Francisco Secretary.

Rev. O. A. Ross, who murdered his wife, child, and himself at Lockeford few days ago, was a graduate of Pacific Theological Seminary.

TWO SCHOLARSHIPS

Secured in Howard University by the First Congregational Church.

A great deal of interest, that manifested itself in a most substantial manner, greeted Rev. Dr. William A. Sinclair, the freedman orator and preacher who occupied the pulpit in the First Congregational Church yesterday.

Dr. Sinclair's mission on this coast is in behalf of the Howard University at Washington, the largest in the world devoted entirely to the colored race. That the cause is a good one, with which the congregation he addressed are in warm sympathy, is evidenced by the fact that enough was subscribed to establish two scholarships in the name of the First Congregational Church. The actual money subscription amounts to $1324, and enough was pledged to raise the sum to $2000. The scholarships are $1000.

Although Dr. Sinclair has received quite a number of small contributions of a miscellaneous character, this was the first appeal to a church society.

Howard University was named after General O. O. Howard, who was for some years commander of the Division of the Pacific and stationed at San Francisco.

BACKBONE.

It is Needed in the Pulpit as Elsewhere.

Rev. Dr. Dille preached a characteristic sermon last evening on the need of backbone in preaching. Preachers were sometimes prone to be choked by their bread and butter, and he told the story of a minister who was warned that he must not attack intemperance because a liquor merchant paid $200 per annum pew rent. "Well" said he "just take that amount off my salary while I take a $200 shot at that particular pew." It is very easy to preach to the converted, but it takes backbone to attack a man's favorite sin in his hearing.

CATHOLIC NOTES.

Brilliant Clerical Dinners at the Late Baltimore Congress.

A reception was given to Rev. Bro. Patrick on Thursday evening last by the Brothers of St. Joseph's Academy. The young men who delivered orations on the occasion were A. McKee, Henry Tarberin, Charles Rittenhouse, W. Manouf, J. Dougherty, G. Monnier, E. Murphy, J. Nolan, J. Shaw, F. Schmidt, and C. Montgomery.

The dinners given by Archbishop Riordan in Baltimore during the Catholic Congress were brilliant and notable affairs.

At one of these clerical dinners, given by a brother of Bishop Foley, Archbishop Riordan headed the delegation of the graduates of the Notre Dame University, Indiana, who called upon the venerable founder, Superior General Edward Dorain, whose pupil the Archbishop had been. Father Gleason was elected one of the Vice Presidents of Loyola College, and altogether the California clericals received a welcome in Baltimore that sent them home happy.

Mrs. Sarah Butler died yesterday at 806 Jefferson street. The funeral will be held at 10 A. M. tomorrow at the residence.

J. M. Frost, aged 67, died at the Oakland Hospital yesterday of Bright's disease. He was a resident of Oroville and came here for treatment.

SUPERFLUOUS ENERGY.

W. J. Dingee Thinks Some of It Ought to be Imported.

W. J. Dingee, who has been absent on a tour through the Eastern States during the past six weeks, returned last Saturday. He traveled eastward over the Canadian Pacific route and is not particularly pleased with the service or the country through which the road runs. He considers the Manitoba country the most interesting. Mr. Dingee visited New York, Philadelphia, Washington, and Chicago, and was much impressed by the boom like enterprise of the business men of those cities.

"If we had a little of their superfluous energy in Oakland," he remarked, "we would have no difficulty in building hotels, boulevards, or anything else that would tend to improve the city and forward its prosperity." The people of the Eastern States, he said, do not realize the advantages of California, and they will hardly believe the statements of those who have wintered here.

"To one who travels through nearly 2000 miles of snow to reach this coast," Mr. Dingee said, "California is, indeed, a paradise. I enjoyed my trip thoroughly, but I appreciate the beauties of California and I am more than glad to get home again."

REV. HOBART CHETWOOD.

Rev. Hobart Chetwood, rector of St. Paul's Church, returned on Saturday from attendance upon the general convention of the Episcopal Church in New York. Yesterday and last evening the rector told what was done at the convention. The pastoral letter of the House of Bishops was also read.

What is Better Than the Best?

What is better than a reliable time piece?—one that is always correct and to be relied upon. The best watches known in Oakland are kept by John Frey of 1768 Seventh street, which are the old reliable railroad watches, in solid silver and gold cases, guaranteed for a life time when kept properly cleaned. Mr Frey has been established 17 years in the jewelry business, and all representations by him can be relied upon. He also carries a large stock of diamonds and every thing in the jewelry line.

A Collision on the Bay.

Between the steamers Piedmont and Encinal was averted by the captain's wife being in the pilot house and having a clear head through having her head shampooed by the Queen of artists, Mrs. L. S. Silberberg. She threw the wheel two points to leeward and saved two boatloads of human beings from a cold bath in the briny bay. Ladies wishing to have their heads shampooed, bangs trimmed, finger-nails manicured, or standing in need of ladies' toilet articles or hair goods, should not fail to call at the Eastern Hair Store, 405 Twelfth street, between Broadway and Franklin.

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.
